

BRIAN WEBB

Biography

SUMMARY

Brian Webb is the Manager of Health Policy and Legislation for the National Association Insurance Commissioners (NAIC). The NAIC represents the insurance regulators in all 50 states, the District of Columbia, and 5 U.S. territories.

Before joining the NAIC, Brian worked on Medicare and Medicaid policy for the BlueCross BlueShield Association and, prior to that, was the Assistant Vice President for Legislation for the then-Federation of American Health Systems (FAHS).

Brian began working in Washington, D.C. on health care policy in 1988 as a legislative aide for Congressman Bill Thomas. After six years with Congressman Thomas, Brian worked five years in California Governor Pete Wilson's Washington, D.C., office as health and welfare aide and Deputy Director.

Brian Webb has a masters degree in Public Administration from the George Washington University and a bachelor's degree from BIOLA University in California.
